

Long Biography

Jacy Imilkowski PMP, CPCC, ACC is an energetic speaker, born storyteller, and self-admitted communication nerd. She deftly weaves story, humor, and expertise to share tools and skills that engage participants' hearts and minds. She's a certified project manager and personal/professional development coach with over 20 years of experience coaching, training, and managing projects. Jacy has an exceptional understanding of team communication dynamics. She has developed and delivered hundreds of learning sessions to individuals and organizations in the healthcare, insurance, education, and technology industries. Her interactive presentations focus on real-world application, and participants leave every session with tools they can immediately apply in their everyday lives.

Jacy has been honored by In Business Magazine as one of 2018's 40 Under 40 young professionals recognized for business and community engagement. When not working she enjoys volunteering as a team member with her local Project Management Institute chapter, a career coach with Domestic Abuse Intervention Services, and a foster home for Greyhound Pets of America – Wisconsin. She is an avid speculative fiction and fantasy reader, food and flower gardener and enjoys spending time in nature with her partner.
